ELKS ANTLERS

VOL. 57 ISSUE 6

SEPTEMBER 2006

MESSAGE FROM OUR EXALTED RULER

Hello, Everyone!

All aboard for a bus trip to NYC. On Saturday, September 23rd ride with us to New York City for its oldest, biggest and best street festival—the Feast of San Gennaro. For only $37 for the bus ticket you will enjoy street entertainment, international food stands and even a cannoli-eating contest. You'll also be able to browse through 300 street vendors' wares as well as select dining at 35 of Little Italy's famous restaurants. Contact Cindy Mack at 664-1856. Don't miss out.

On Sunday, September 10th, the Lodge is sponsoring a Breakfast with Heroes from 9am to noon. You are all invited to share this special time with our honored guests—members of our local service organizations who protect us.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Exalted Ruler Mike Lasek

Comedic Musical Show by the Knuckleheads

Tickets now available at Lodge

The Knuckleheads, performing since 1999 in New York City, Boston Comedy Clubs, colleges, business conferences, wherever there's a stage, features clean, hilarious material, often referring to people in the audience. So, Beware, Phantom! Michael "Hano" Hannon (right), member of our Lodge, and Spencer "The Inspector" White, member of Elk Lodge No. 74 in Hoboken, are professional actors/comedians/writers whose inspired musical lunacy is heard on radio and TV commercials. Reserve your Steak Roast ticket now and get ready to laugh your socks off on September 9. Michael is married to the former Colleen Patrick, daughter of Carolyn (Cookie) Patrick, both Lodge members. Close friend and Lodge member Richard Shields enthusiastically recommends that you not miss this zany duo.

ELK OF THE MONTH

CONGRATULATIONS!!

GENE LEE

Thank you so much for volunteering to mow the Lodge's lawn. It looks great!
